

MCTT Annual Winter Bluegrass Show Saturday February 25, 2012

Music City Texas Theater presents The Annual Winter Bluegrass Show February 25th. The show is hosted by Hickory Hill and features special guests Milo Deering and Dallas Holm.

Hickory Hill has proven to be one of Texas' most popular and enduring acoustic groups. The band has released nine albums in their 33 year history and received both critical acclaim from the Bluegrass community and widespread acceptance from fans. Hickory Hill includes MCTT's own John Early on guitar, Bob Stegall on bass, Wes Perry on banjo and Michael Morrison on mandolin and guitar.

Milo Deering's gifted hand can be heard on many singer's albums., adding pedal steel guitar, fiddle, dobro, mandolin and guitar. He has recorded with Lee Ann Rimes, Jack Ingram, Steve Holy, Trout Fishing in America and Slim Whitman. Milo has appeared as a member of Blue Country (Ms. Rimes band) on The Tonight Show, The Today Show, The Grammy Awards, David Letterman, and The Billboard Music Awards. His original compositions are regularly featured on National Geographic and Good Morning America. Milo co-wrote and played the famous Motel 6 radio jingle (We'll leave the light on for you!) for which he received a Clio award.

Lindale, Texas' Dallas Holm is a singer-songwriter of Christian music, whose musical ministry has spanned almost four decades. His influence has been greatest in contemporary Christian music. While he has had several hit singles in CCM, he is best known for the favorite inspirational song "Rise Again.
